ART CONTEST

How do parks make life better?

Create a winning piece of art answering this question and your work could be displayed in Depot Street Park's interactive art gallery!

Picture your art here!

Greenfield Parks and Recreation is looking for local art to display at Depot Street Park! Children and adults are invited to create art showing how parks make life better. Winning art will be printed and displayed on Depot Street Park's vertical art panels.

THEME: How do parks make YOUR life better? Whether it's the improved access to nature, the recreational and educational opportunities, the serene places to hike or jog, or one of the other wonderful benefits of local parks, we'd love to see!

RULES: Artists must reside in Hancock County, Indiana. Submissions must be a two-dimensional medium on canvas or paper between 8.5"x11" and 12"x18". Contest runs April 18 through May 20, 2022. Categories— Children in Grades K-3, Grades 4-6, Grades 7-8, Grades 9-12, Adult. Judges will select a winner from each age category based on the following criteria: execution, originality, and interpretation of theme.

ART CONTEST

Rules & Guidelines

Imagine your art on display at Depot Street Park!

Greenfield Parks and Recreation has been working hard to open Depot Street Park, and we're looking for some local art to display in our interactive art gallery. Adults and children are encouraged to submit their art into the contest. The winning art submissions will be photographed and printed onto vinyl posters, then mounted on Depot Street Park's vertical art panels located along Pennsylvania Street. Art submissions could be on display for up to a year.

THEME

Greenfield Parks and Recreation knows Parks Make Life Better. Now, we'd love to hear from YOU on how parks make YOUR life better! Do parks provide you better access to nature? Do you enjoy family activities during the different seasons? Do you like being able to watch native flora and fauna grow? Do you take advantage of the recreational and educational opportunities in local parks? Do parks provide a serene place for you to hike or jog? Whatever it may be, we'd love to see!

CONTEST RULES

Artists must reside in Hancock County, Indiana. Submissions must be between 8.5"x11" and 12"x18", and must be a two-dimensional medium (paint, drawing materials, collage materials, or mixed media) on canvas or paper. Artwork must be original (no traced, trademarked, or copyrighted characters or slogans). Three submissions will be accepted per person.

Contest begins April 18, 2022. Deadline for entry: May 20, 2022. All art must be dropped off at Greenfield Parks and Recreation (280 Apple Street, Greenfield, IN) between 8am and 4pm. Entry forms will be provided at drop off. Winning pieces will be kept by Greenfield Parks and Recreation in order to procure the high resolution images needed for printing. Art pieces can be picked up after the Depot Street Park grand opening on June 18th, 2022.

JUDGING & WINNERS

Art will be divided into the following categories: Children in Grades K-3, Grades 4-6, Grades 7-8, Grades 9-12, and Adult. A panel of judges from Greenfield Parks and Recreation will select a winner from each age category. Judging will be based on the following criteria: execution, originality, and interpretation of theme. Winners of the art contest will be announced during the Depot Street Park Grand Opening on Saturday, June 18th. Winners will also receive a fabulous prize in addition to having their winning piece displayed at Depot Street Park.
